

John is proud to hold the position of Senior Vice President and New Orleans Market President at Home Bank, celebrating his 10th year with the company and his 30th year as a banker in 2020. He leads a team of very accomplished commercial bankers in the Greater New Orleans area.

Home Bank is a Louisiana based community bank serving Acadiana, Baton Rouge, Natchez, Vicksburg, Southwest Louisiana, New Orleans and the Northshore.

John was born in New Orleans and is happy to answer your first question:

He graduated from Jesuit High School. He is also proud to say that he graduated from Spring Hill College in Mobile, AL. He also earned his MBA from the University of New Orleans, as well as graduated from the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University.

John thinks that as a community banker it is his duty and privilege to give back. John is proud to have served for 11 years as Trustee of his alma mater, Spring Hill College. John is also a former Chairman of the Board of Boy's Town Louisiana.

Today, John is a member of the Board of Directors and Treasurer of Reconcile New Orleans. He is also a commissioner on the First Planning District Workforce Board (Tri-Parish Works) covering St. Tammany, St. Bernard and Plaquemine Parishes. He also serves on the Board of Directors of GNO, Inc. the regional economic development agency for the 10-parish area around New Orleans.

John is a graduate of the 2012 Class of Leadership St. Tammany West, and a proud member of the BEST class of 2019 of New Orleans Regional Leadership Institute (NORLI).

John is married to the former Christina ("Tina") Taulli. They have 3 children; Zoë, John V ("Jake"), and Quincy.
